

Scholarships to Audubon Hog Island

Southern Maryland Audubon Society is now accepting applications for scholarships to Audubon Camp in Hog Island, Maine. For 2020, SMAS will offer three types of camp scholarships for teens, educators, or others with a serious interest in ornithology, bird watching, or environmental and nature studies. Applications must be received by February 10. The scholarships cover tuition, room, and board. The recipient is responsible for all travel expenses. For details about each camp scholarship go to the Audubon Hog Island website at <https://hogisland.audubon.org/programs>

CAMP PROGRAMS OFFERED

Birders	Field Ornithology	June 21 – June 26
Teens	Mountains to Sea Birding for Teens (ages 14 -17)	June 28 – July 3
Teachers	Sharing Nature: An Educators Week	July 12 – July 17

Applicants must be residents of Southern Maryland. To apply please send a one page letter explaining:

1. How you will benefit from the Hog island opportunity
2. How you will use the experience and knowledge to benefit others in Southern Maryland and support the SMAS mission.

Your signed letter must include:

1. Mailing Address
2. Email Address
3. Phone Number
4. One or more signed letters of recommendation describing your interests, abilities, and how the experience will benefit either your organization or the SMAS mission.

Scholarship recipients must submit a written article for our Osprey newsletter about their experience by August 7, and possibly a brief presentation at one of the future Monthly Meeting Programs for 2020 – 2021.

Please send applications to:
Tracey Stuller, Education Committee Chair
Southern Maryland Audubon Society
smaseducationchair@gmail.com

